VOCAB AND GRAMMAR REVIEW

talk english

Job and career

1. Complete the paragraph with the suitable adjectives.

dull	temporary	part-time	glamorous
well-paid	permanent	stressful	rewarding
badly-paid	full-time	challenging	repetitive

People think that being an actor is quite (1) glamorous. — all those parties and premieres. And of course, premieres are exciting evenings — it's incredibly (2)r_____ to see the result of all your hard work. But on film or TV sets, you have to wait around for long periods of time. It can actually be quite (3)d_____. I'd like to be a (4)f_____ actor, but I don't have enough work. Also I can't take a (5)p_____ job because I might have to leave at any time. Acting is quite (6)w_____ but I've got a lot of bills to pay! So, in the afternoons, I have a (7)t_____ job in an office. The work isn't difficult. In fact, I wouldn't want anything too (8)c_____. I need to be awake in the evenings to learn my lines! I can't imagine doing an everyday job — it's too (9)r_____ for me. Acting isn't (10)s_____ at all. But earning enough to live can be. My office job isn't (11)b_____, but it's only (12)p_____. I'm just waiting for a lucky break!

2. Match the beginnings to the endings of the questions then report them.

1. How many jobs have i
2. Are you living
3. What will you do if
4. Did you
5. What was your
6. Have you ever
7. Does anyone in your
8. How many people
9. Will you email
10. How long are

a. us your referee's phone number?
b. in Scotland at the moment?
c. family live in the UK?
d. you planning to stay in the UK?
e. last job?
f. do you know in Edinburgh?
g. you don't get this job?
h. looked after twins before?
i. you applied for?
j. look after children in Spain?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Report the questions above:

1. She asked me how many jobs I had applied for.
2. She wanted to know _____.
3. She asked me _____.
4. She wanted to know _____.
5. She asked me _____.
6. She wanted to know _____.
7. She wanted to know _____.
8. She asked me _____.
9. She wanted to know _____.
10. She asked me _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS