

1. Refer to the song. Drag the toys, doll , clothes and Rex to the correct place in the house.

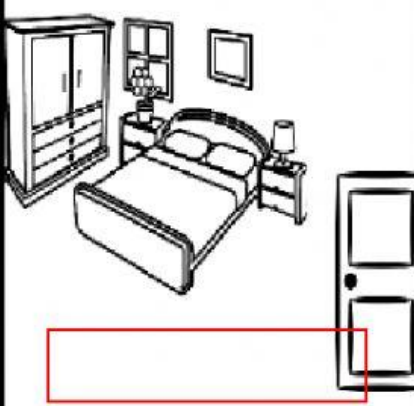

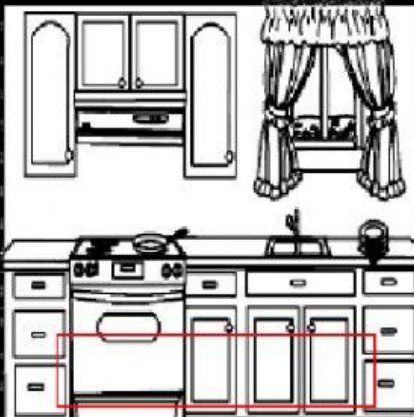

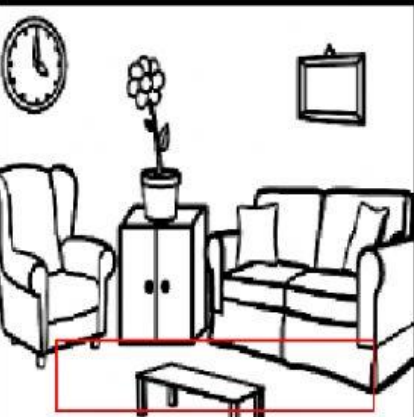

Come with me to my new house
My new house, my new house,
Come with me to my new house,
I'm upstairs and you're downstairs.

My doll is in the kitchen.
Rex is behind the door.
The toys are in front of the wardrobe.
My clothes are on the bedroom floor.

2. Label the parts of the house correctly.

| upstairs                                                                                                    | kitchen                                                                                                     | bedroom                                                                                                      |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| downstairs                                                                                                  | living room                                                                                                 | bathroom                                                                                                     |
| <h1>ANNA'S NEW HOUSE</h1>                                                                                   |                                                                                                             |                                                                                                              |
| <input type="text"/>  | <input type="text"/>  | <input type="text"/>  |
| <input type="text"/> | <input type="text"/> | <input type="text"/> |