
Chapters 1-2

Correct the wrong information. There are no mistakes in some sentences.

1. Tom and Chrissie went to the beach at sunset.
2. Tom wanted to go for a swim but Chrissie didn't.
3. In the end, Chrissie walked into the sea while Tom sat at the beach.
4. She swam for a while and then stopped to rest.
5. She swam further into the sea.
6. A killer whale bit one of her arms off.
7. Eventually, the sea creature carried Chrissie away in its mouth.
8. Tom was sleepy and headed for the house.
9. He saw Chrissie's flip-flops and put them away from the sea shore.
10. Chrissie was nowhere to be found.
11. Tom phoned the police.
12. Brody was a lifeguard.
13. After searching the town, Hendricks phoned Jack Foote.
14. Hendricks was shocked to find a woman's head and part of her leg.
15. Brody thought that a serial killer attacked her.
16. Harry Meadows wrote about the incident in his newspaper The Amity Reader.
17. Vaughan persuaded Brody to keep the beaches open.

LIVEWORKSHEETS