Name: Date:

Types of Sentences Declarative and Interrogative

Choose D for declarative or I for interrogative to tell what type of sentence it is.

1. All vertebrates have one thing in common, a backbone. D I
2. Vertebrates include fish, mammals, reptiles, amphibians, and birds. D I
3. How are vertebrates and invertebrates different? D I
4. How many legs do insects have? D I
5. How many legs do spiders have? D I
6. Insects have three body parts. D I
7. Do spiders have wings? D I
8. Spiders have two body parts, head, and abdomen. D I
9. Most invertebrates have an exoskeleton which is a hard outer covering. D I
10. What does the exoskeleton do for the invertebrates? D I spider

fly

Write 1 declarative sentence and 1 interrogative sentence. (1pt. each)

11.

_____.

declarative

12.

_____.

interrogative

Choose True if the underlined word describes this sentence correctly or circle False if it does not describe the sentence correctly.

13. A life cycle is the order of the stages in an animal's growth.

INTERROGATIVE TRUE FALSE

14. The grasshopper and cockroach go through three stages of a life cycle.

DECLARATIVE TRUE FALSE

15. How many stages do the mosquito and housefly go through? DECLARATIVE

TRUE FALSE

LIVEWORKSHEETS