Life in Argentina 50 years ago _____ French immigrants in Argentina _____

My grandma's life as an immigrant _____

My grandma was born in France but she didn't live there for a long time. She arrived in Argentina with her parents when she was ten years old. They didn't speak any Spanish and life was difficult for them. After several years of hard work, her father opened a small restaurant in Rosario. When Grandma was a teen, she went to school in the morning and helped her parents in the restaurant in the evening. When she finished secondary school, she went to university because she wanted to become a doctor. She was an excellent chef, though. She even participated in a TV competition and became quite famous. But she decided to finish her career as a doctor. She attended university in Córdoba and there she met my grandpa. When they graduated, they got married and had three children. Her life as an immigrant wasn't easy but she was very hard-working and is now a very successful and happy woman.
