Gerunds as Subjects

Complete the following text by using the correct gerund form of the verbs from the box

Play/ Talk / Study/ Listen/ Watch/ Speak/ Read/ Learn/ Write

_____English as a second language can be difficult for most people. It requires a lot of practice and time. _____to music in English can help new students learn vocabulary and pronunciation; especially if they read the song lyrics while doing it. _____texts in English can help students learn about grammar and vocabulary too. _____can help learners put into practice grammar rules and vocabulary.
Finally,_____helps students express through oral communication what they acquired from the language and of course, practicing their pronunciation.
_____can be sometimes boring, but it is necessary to review all the information learned. It is not a must to sit and read for hours the information that the students have learned about the language. There are funny ways to review it; _____movies in English, _____with a bilingual or native speaker, _____games in English, and many other strategies.

LIVEWORKSHEETS