Part 3 : Reading.

February 14th is Valentine's Day. Many people believe that this day is the most romantic day of the year. On this day, men and women, boys and girls of all ages prepare a special treat (usually flowers or chocolate) to give to the person they care about the most. Lots of people choose this day to confess their love to others. When they do, they say things like "Happy Valentine's Day!" or "Be my Valentine." It's always nice to have someone that cares about you deeply. If you have someone that you really care about, but haven't yet had the courage to tell that person that you like him or her, why not use this Valentine's Day to express your true feelings?
