CLA Chapter 6 Safety Principles

Directions: Click and drag the icons on the right to the correct terms and definitions

Primarily responsible for developing and enforcing air transportation rules. Works to improve safety and efficiency of aviation	Radiation signs are in this color
Must be clearly marked and not blocked as time is critical during and emergency	Safety and first-aid stations are this color
This administration primarily focuses on safety regulations for large trucks and buses	Primary responsible for safety in the US railroad industry
Multiple federal agencies report thru this federal department to ensure the safety of the USA	Studies the causes of workplace injuries and illnesses and develops way to help control hazards
Cautionsigns are in this color	The federal government body with primary responsibility for transportation safety regulation

Department of Homeland Security

Yellow & Magenta (or Black)

FMCSA

Exit Doors & Aisles

NIOSH

Green

Yellow

USDOT

FRA

FAA

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Responsible for safety regulation of inland water carriers	When fighting small fires, workers are encouraged to follow this sequence
When using this emergency device, the operator should ensure that there is an escape route behind them	Even a short fall from this can cause serious injury
Primary federal agency devoted to workplace safety	Information signs are in this color
They are required to create and maintain a safe and healthy workplace - including providing training, PPE, safety equipment and hazard communication	This secures a trailer to the building and uses a system of lights to indicate that the trailer is safe to enter or not
They have a strong vested interest in preserving a safe work environment, and must deep their own work areas well-organized, clean and free of clutter	Federal agency that develops and enforces regulations protecting the land, air and water

Ladders & Scaffoldings

Employers

Dock-Lock

OSHA

US Coast Guard

Blue

PASS

Employees

Fire Extinguisher

EPA

LIVEWORKSHEETS