

A. Choose the correct phrasal verbs.

1. Someone broke out / broke into our house at the weekend and stole our jewellery.
2. Your son always lies. I don't know how you put him away / put up with him.
3. The police caught the mugger, but, he got away / got away with while they were taking him too the station.
4. There have been burglaries in the area recently, so lock up / lock in your valuables if you're going away.
5. This bloodstained shirt ties up / ties in with the murder. We can use it as evidence.
6. We know you're in there, Bugsy! Give back / Give in now before you get hurt.

B. Match the meaning of the phrasal verbs

1. Do something bad without being punished for it
2. Return something to someone
3. Put someone in a place that they can't get out
4. Escape from prison
5. Put rope around someone so he or she can't move
6. Send someone to prison

a. Break out
b. Tie up
c. Get away with
d. Put away
e. Give back
f. Lock in

C. Choose the correct word.

stole	robbed
-------	--------

1. Somebody _____ the bank this morning and took a lot of money but no one was hurt.
2. I can't believe you _____ a tablet from the shop ! I'm calling the police.

kill	die
------	-----

3. I didn't mean to _____ him, Officer. It was a mistake.
4. She was in a very bad accident and we're afraid that she might _____.

accuse	excuse
--------	--------

5. If you'll _____ me for a moment, I'll be right back.
6. You should never _____ anyone of stealing something until you know for sure that they did it.

avoid	prevent
-------	---------

7. Keep away from those boys if you want to _____ getting into trouble.
8. The police have set up a new department to help _____ teens from breaking the law.

quite	quiet
-------	-------

9. This book is called Murder in the Orient Express. It's _____ good.
10. Why are you being so _____ ? Is something wrong?

lose	loose
------	-------

11. Those ropes are too _____. Make them tighter or he'll escape.
12. If we _____ the court case, the murderer will be a free man.

is on the run

haven't arrested a criminal caught him red-handed

found her guilty

turn to a life of crime

send him to prison

is doing time

D. Fill in the blanks with correct phrase.

1. The detectives _____; he was holding the bloodstained knife!
2. The thief admitted his crime and the judge _____ for three years.
3. Many poor teens _____ in order to get money to buy things.
4. Tim's dad _____ for burglary. He will get out of prison in two weeks.
5. I've only been a policeman for a few days, so I _____ yet.
6. The judge _____ of shoplifting and made her pay a fine.
7. Apparently the murderer _____ and may be on his way to Hull.

