Reading

Name: _____

Directions: Read. Remember you need to write it again. Organize the summary in beginning, middle, and end.

Deer Claw is not an easy place to live because there is a boy named Brent who bothers Peter. They are meeting new people and learning to live in the new place.

After a year, living there one day it rains for many days, there is a flood in the city. They almost drown together with many people, but at the end they survive. Everyone learns how helping each other can help us in a moment of crisis.

This story is about a boy named Peter, his little brother, and his dad who move to the City of Deer Claw because the mother has died recently. The father becomes the town recycling man.

Directions: Write the characters and the setting.

Characters:	Setting:

Directions: Drag the parts on the other worksheet to order the events in beginning, middle, and end.

Beginning:

Middle:

End:

LIVEWORKSHEETS