

Use the simple present or the present continuous to complete the ideas.

1. A: When Jim (have) biology class?

B: He (not / take) biology this year.

2. A: What Alan (do) now?

B: He (check) his email.

A: Again?

B: Sure. He (check) his email all the time.

3. A: What you (listen) to?

B: It's a new hip-hop group. you (like) their music?

A: Not really. Could you turn it down?

4. A: Where's Jane?

B: She (sleep).

A: But it's noon. Why she (sleep) now?

B: She (work) on Saturday evenings, so she's always tired on Sundays.