

3- Look at this chart that includes some of the most popular Myth heroes and legendary creatures. Write each name from exercise 2 with the right heroine, hero, creature or monster.

|   | Character | Type              | Objective / type                                                          | Fact                                                                | Origin        | Picture                                                                             |
|---|-----------|-------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 |           | Mythological Hero | Quest:His quest is to kill 12 scary baddies in 12 impossible Labours. | His first labour was to kill the Nemean Lion.                       | Greek / Roman |  |
| 2 |           | Mythological Hero | Quest:His quest is to kill Medusa, the snake-headed gorgon.           | The gods Zeus, Athena and Hermes gave him magical gifts to help him | Greek         |  |

|   |  |                      |                                                                                                 |                                                            |       |                                                                                                                                                                         |
|---|--|----------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------|-------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 3 |  | Mythological Hero    | Quest: Their quest is to get revenge for their grandfather and create a new city. | They were abandoned as babies and raised by a she-wolf.    | Roman |                                                                                      |
| 4 |  | Mythological heroine | Quest: To kill the enormous and deadly Caledonian Boar.                           | She was later turned into a lion by the goddess Aphrodite. | Greek |   |

|   |  |                      |                                        |                                           |               |                                                                                     |
|---|--|----------------------|----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------|---------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 5 |  | Mythological Goddess | Who is she?Wisdom, war and heroes. | Her shield – with Medusa's head attached! | Greek (Roman) |   |
| 6 |  | Mythological Goddess | Who is she?Love, beauty and war.   | Her necklace.                             | Norse         |  |

|   |  |                  |                                             |                                     |       |                                                                                     |
|---|--|------------------|---------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|-------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 7 |  | Mythological God | Who is he?God of Love.                  | He always carries a bow and arrow.  | Roman |   |
| 8 |  | Mythological God | Who is he?God of Thunder and lightning. | He always carries his magic hammer. | Norse |  |

|    |  |                       |                                                                                                     |                                                                             |                  |                                                                                     |
|----|--|-----------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 9  |  | Legendary hero | Quest: His quest is to slay the dragon.                                               | He is the patron saint of England, but was born in Turkey or Israel. | European  |  |
| 10 |  | Legendary hero | Quest: His quest is to protect King Arthur from his enemies and give him good advice. | In legend, Merlin created Stonehenge.                                | Arthurian |  |

|    |  |                                          |                                                                                         |                                                                                      |                  |                                                                                     |
|----|--|------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 11 |  | Legendary beast / creature | What is it? It is a lake monster that looks like a dinosaur.       | Somebody took a photo of the monster in 1933, but people think it was a hoax. | Scottish  |   |
| 12 |  | Legendary beast / creature | What is it? A tiny magical lady or man, usually with dainty wings. | Long ago, people wore charms for protection against naughty fairies.          | European  |  |
| 13 |  | Legendary beast / creature | What is it? A white horse with a pointed white horn.               | Long ago, people believed that unicorn horns contained magical medicine.      | Worldwide |  |

|    |  |                                          |                                                                                   |                                                                                 |       |                                                                                     |
|----|--|------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 14 |  | Legendary beast / creature | What is it? A little bearded man sometimes dressed in green. | They mend shoes and hide a pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. | Irish |  |
|----|--|------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|