READING COMPREHENSION

Read the forum. Then complete the sentences

How are you travelling to school today?

My school is in Manhattan, but I live on Staten Island. It takes about 25 minutes to get to school. I travel 8.4 km across the New York Harbor on the Staten Island Ferry. There's Wi-Fi on the ferry, so I'm using my tablet at the moment. I like looking at the sights on the way to school – the ferry is passing the Statue of Liberty now!

I'm from Japan and many people take the subway (the underground) when they go out or go to school – even young children! I'm travelling with my six-year-old sister now. She likes going on the subway, but she doesn't like carrying her bag with all her textbooks! A big part of Japanese culture is helping people, so we know we can always ask people for help.

I'm so excited because I'm going back to school today! I'm from the Nenet region in northern Russia but for nine months of the year, I live and study in school in a different area of Russia. The helicopter is arriving now to take us to school to start the new year!
