

Unit 5 – Globetrotting

IDIOMS (pg72)

Fill in the blanks with the correct idioms from the box below.

blessing in disguise	keep an eye	pointing fingers	to drag their feet	have heart to heart talk
a gut feeling	face the music	couch potatoes	at loggerheads	out of this world
safe and sound	tied the knot	widen their horizon	steer clear of danger	in the dark

- 1) The suffering Adam went through in life was actually a _____, for it has taught him to be prudent and thrifty with his finances.
- 2) Many obese Malaysians are actually _____. They just like to sit and eat on a couch all day long watching movies without moving an inch.
- 3) Students who like _____ will not be able to finish their school project on time.
- 4) Students need to _____ in order to face the challenges of globalization.
- 5) People who like to be mules for drug traffickers must learn to _____ if caught by the authorities.
- 6) Sam has _____ that something bad is going to happen today.
- 7) Parents need to _____ with their teenage children often. This will help them to understand the emotional turmoil their teenage children are going through better.
- 8) Reading helps a person to be knowledgeable about his surrounding and not be _____.
- 9) Parents need to _____ on their children after school activities.
- 10) We packed our things and headed to the remote village in Manjala. The journey was quite challenging and dangerous but we managed to _____ and reached the village _____.
- 11) My father and mother are always _____, they never once agree on anything, always _____ at one another over silly matters.
- 12) After waiting for six long years, Pat and Mandy finally _____. Their parents gave them an _____ wedding reception as a wedding gift.