

Name: Chores

Chores

Wherever you live, it is important to keep your living space tidy and clean by doing housework or chores. Chores is another word for housework. Making beds, preparing meals and taking out the garbage are examples of housework or chores.

Drag the pictures below and drop them under the correct word.

Making the bed	Preparing meals	Taking out garbage

Housework

Look at the picture below. Answer these questions below.

1. How does this home look?
2. How do you know this home is clean?
3. How does this space make you feel?

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Housework

Look at the picture below. Answer these questions.

1. How does this home look?
2. How do you know this home is dirty?
3. How does this space make you feel?

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Household chores can be organized into three time patterns. These three time patterns are:

1. Chores that need to be done daily.
2. Chores that are done once a week.
3. Chores that are done seasonally.

Families usually share these cleaning responsibilities. As you get older, you can take on more cleaning responsibilities to help your family.

What are some chores you do at home?

Vacuum 	Wash laundry 	Grocery shopping
Make the bed 	Wash or dry dishes 	Set the table

Daily Chores

Daily chores are chores that need to be done each and every day. Prepare food, putting away your school bag and organizing bed, dressers and closets are examples of chores that need to be done daily.

Drag the pictures below and drop them under the correct word.

prepare food	putting away school bag	organizing bed

© Can Stock Photo - csp26845071

Put an X on the pictures of chores that need to be done each day.

Make the bed

Rake leaves

Make lunch

Clean washroom sink

Vacuum floors

Shovel snow

Wash laundry

Plant flowers

Put school bag away

Print 1 daily chore you do each day in the space below.

Weekly Chores

Weekly chores are chores that need to be done on a weekly basis. Grocery shopping, washing laundry and vacuuming are examples of chores that need to be done weekly.

Drag the pictures below and drop them under the correct word.

Grocery shopping	Washing laundry	Vacuuming

Put an X on the pictures of chores that need to be done weekly.

Vacuum floors

Rake leaves

Make lunch

Clean washroom sink

Mop floors

Shovel snow

Wash laundry

Plant flowers

Put school bag away

Print 1 weekly chore you do each week in the space below.

Seasonal Chores

Seasonal chores are chores that need to be done when the seasons change. Raking the leaves in the fall, shoveling snow in the winter and planting flowers in the spring are examples of chores that need to be done seasonally.

Cut out the pictures below and paste them under the correct word.

Raking leaves	Shovelling snow	Planting flowers

