

VOCABULARY

1 Match the people (1–6) and what they say (a–h). There are two sentences you do not need.

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| 1 a chef | a Let's take your temperature. |
| 2 a model | b We'll visit the art gallery first. |
| 3 a nurse | c It took me four months to paint that. |
| 4 a pilot | d Does my hair look better now? |
| 5 a tour guide | e I've never interviewed him. |
| 6 an artist | f No worries! We can repair your car today. |
| | g Just a little more salt, I think. |
| | h It'll only be a short flight. |

2 Put the letters in the right order to make words.

- First, I'm going to the (teesw hosp) to get some chocolate.
- Then, I've got to get some more cough medicine from the (tihcmes).
- And I mustn't forget to go to the (tmraek) for some fresh fruit.
- Afterwards, I'll go to the large (pardntmee rtoes) to look for a new sofa.
- And they've got a variety of really pretty socks in the (tcheslo ophs) so I'll go there next.
- Then I'll walk back into the town centre and go to the new (koobhops) where I'll find a new dictionary for Jill.
- And before I go home, I'll take a look at the new (nnttirea céaf). The wifi there is free. I'll get a cup of coffee and some apple cake!

GRAMMAR

3 Choose the right words to complete the sentences.

- Have you ever / even paid less than £2 for a cola?
- How* / Who expensive were Jan's new pair of designer jeans?
- You can use pounds or euros in the shop what's / that's in the square.
- I've read the set from / of instructions for the camera but I don't understand a thing!
- Bill hasn't passed his driving test already / yet but he's bought a car!
- I've never was / been good at drama. I'm not confident enough.
- I know someone who has ridden / rode all the way across the desert last year.
- Harry and I have just / yet seen Ben in the bank! He was getting some euros for his trip to Ireland.
- I've never told anyone / no one my laptop password.
- My sister left / has left the party about ten minutes ago.

Total:

	23
--	----