

Join the sentences using 'either...or...' or 'neither....nor...'.

1	You can have tea. You can have coffee. You can _____ have tea _____ coffee.
2	Najmee does not play football. Najmee does not play badminton. Najmee plays _____ football _____ badminton.
3	She plans to make pasta for dinner. She plans to make soup for dinner. She plans to make _____ pasta _____ soup for dinner.
4	He is not watching the movie on television. He is not watching movie on the laptop. He is _____ watching the movie on the television _____ laptop.
5	My mother was not at home. My sister was not at home. _____ my mother _____ my sister was at home.
6	My family might go to Penang for a holiday. My family might go to Singapore for a holiday. My family might _____ go to Penang _____ Singapore for a holiday.
7	I have to choose a cat as my pet. I have to choose a rabbit as my pet I have to choose _____ a cat _____ a rabbit as my pet.
8	He couldn't remember Jane's address. He couldn't remember Jane's phone number. He couldn't remember _____ Jane's address _____ Jane's phone number.
9	In this game, you can win. In this game, you can lose. In this game, you _____ win _____ lose.
10	The man does not believe the guard. The man does not believe his friend. The man believe _____ the guard _____ his friend.