

LET'S PRACTICE

Activity 5: Let's read this short paragraph and complete it with the prepositions of place:

on(x2) – behind – below – next to – between – in – on the right – above

Vincent's bedroom at Arles

Clarke, S. (2008). Macmillan English Grammar in Context. Oxford, UK. Macmillan Publishers Limited

This is the famous painting by Van Gogh; it is about his bedroom at Arles. It is a small room. There is some furniture in the room. For example. There is a bed (1)_____ of the pictures, a bed for one person. _____ the bed there are some pictures, _____ the wall. _____ the door, on the left, there is chair. There is another chair _____ the table and the bed. The table and the chair are _____ the window. _____ the table, there are some objects- a jug, a glass and a bowl. _____ the bed there are some things on the wall but they are not easy to see. Of course, there are not any modern things _____ the room but it is very comfortable.

Clarke, S. (2008). Macmillan English Grammar in Context. Oxford, UK. Macmillan Publishers Limited

Activity 7: Let's order these sentences logically to build a text: A book story about Holiday's activities.

|          | Day 3. An exciting day 😊                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
|----------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|          | We go in search of breakfast and find a pleasant cafe called Arís. Only dessert is on the menu, so we have cake for breakfast. The waiter tells us that in 10 kms there is a river, fortunately, here we can rent some bicycles. |
|          | It is 2.00 pm. We are going back to Aris café, to bring back the bikes. We are carrying some fish in the bicycles' baskets.                                                                                                      |
| 1 | Today is hot; we are wearing light clothes shorts, t- shirts and sandals. We want to go Kinsale, an old town, to have breakfast, It is 9:00, and it is late.                                                                     |
|          | It is windy here and the sun is shining. Sam is swimming and Luca is trying to fish. I am taking photographs. It's funny! We are in underwear clothes.                                                                           |
|          | Finally, we arrive to Aris café; the waiter is frying our fish.                                                                                                                                                                  |