Write sentences with when. Follow the examples.

Examples: have a cold / sleep a lot When I have a cold, I sleep a lot. / I sleep a lot when I have a cold.

read a good book / have free time

I read a good book when I have free time. / When I have free time, I read a good book.

1. study for six hours / feel exhausted

2. talk to my friend Anna / have a problem

3. go on vacation / sleep very late

4. feel healthy / exercise every day

5. take aspirin / have a headache

Complete the sentences with your own information.

1. When I don't feel well, I take aspirin and drink tea.
2. When I meet new people, _____.
3. When I don't understand something in English, _____.
4. When I have a lot to do, I _____.
5. When I (don't) take time to _____, I _____.
6. I get impatient when _____.
7. I feel happy when _____.
8. I feel _____ when _____.

Take turns saying the sentences in B. For each sentence, your partner asks you one question.

When I don't feel well, I take aspirin and drink tea.

Really? Does it help?

I think so! I always feel better the next day.

LIVEWORKSHEETS