At the Coffee Shop

Complete the conversation.
Use SIMPLE PRESENT, PRESENT CONTINUOUS, SIMPLE FUTURE (WILL) or BE GOING TO.

Marta: Hello. How are you?

Nira: Great. Nice to see you. What _____ you _____ (do) here?

Marta: I am waiting for my next class. It _____ (start) in two hours. What are your plans this afternoon? Want to have a coffee with me?

Nira: I _____ (go) to the library. I _____ (have) a math test next week and I think I _____ (not/do) well.

Marta: Want me to come to the library with you? I _____ (help) with your studying.

Nira: Thanks. I really need help with my word problems.

Marta: _____ (your teacher/give/usually) difficult tests?

Nira: Always! He _____ (is) the hardest teacher in the school!

Marta: What _____ (you/study) now in class?

Nira: Quadratic equations. I _____ (get/always) confused.

Marta: I love quadratic equations! I _____ (teach) you an easy way to do them.

Nira: Great!

Marta: Oh no. Look at that sky!! It _____ (rain) very soon. I _____ (not/have) my umbrella with me.

Nira: Let's stay here and work instead. _____ you _____ (want) another coffee?

Marta: Yes, please! I _____ (find) a table for us.

---

1. What are your plans this weekend?

2. Make me a promise.

3. Make a prediction about two people in the class.

4. Your family/friends need your help moving this weekend. How can you offer your help?