8. Mary's _____ is one of her most significant personality traits./ GENEROUS
9. Max's _____ on his parents is surprising for a man of his age. He's nearly forty years old!/ DEPEND
10. I couldn't express my _____ openly. Ben is my boss!/ ANNOY
11. I couldn't hide my _____ when I saw my three-year-old daughter trying on my high heels. She looked hilarious!/ AMUSE
12. The news of his death filled us with great _____./ SAD
13. You can't leave the school building without your teacher's _____, I'm afraid./ PERMIT
14. He had prepared his presentation with such _____ that I wasn't surprised at all when the teacher rejected it./ CARELESS
15. The _____ of students in our class can speak two foreign languages fluently./ MAJOR

Task 3 Complete the sentences with the correct words:

1. You won't find it difficult to write your report; you'll have all your facts and figures at your f_ _ _ _ _ t_ _ s.
2. Some of the poet's best works were written out of the feeling of being homesick, while he was in ex_ _ _.
3. Living in the city is inf_ _ _ _ _ _ y preferable to living in the country. There are better job opportunities here, better public transport and I simply love the hustle and bustle of a big city!
4. Little children have a short attention s_ _ n.
5. She is too ill too stand, let al_ _ _ walk.
6. We were doing fine until the bank pulled a p_ _ g on us. We might even have to face bankruptcy.
7. You may easily get addicted to c_ ff_ _ _ _ ted beverages.
8. As his tone grew more m_ n_ c_ _ g, I decided to call for help.
9. The teacher took immediate action when she found out one of her pupils was an object of r_ d_ _ ul_ for other children.
10. I found it difficult to work in the late evenings at first, but I soon grew ac_ _ _ t_ _ ed to it.
11. His s_ _ _ -im_ _ _ _ d discipline is highly admirable!
12. When he heard the bad news, he didn't say anything. He just sh_ _ gged indifferently.
13. The factory turns _ _ _ a hundred laptops weekly.
14. The government has issued an el_ q_ _ nt appeal for support recently.
15. His lack of responsibility is simply i_ fu_ _ _ _ ing!