

UNIT 7: EXTREME SITUATIONS

LISTENING: CLOSE-UP PAGE 88

A. Read the sentences below about a race. Two of the options given fill the gap correctly. Choose the correct answer.

1. competitors limits athletes

In this race, the _____ and _____ must be extremely fit and strong.

2. most challenging toughest incredible

The event is one of the _____ and _____ in the world.

3. deal with carry on cope with

Competitors must _____ and _____ some very difficult conditions.

4. hot dry windiest

Most deserts are extremely _____ and _____ places.

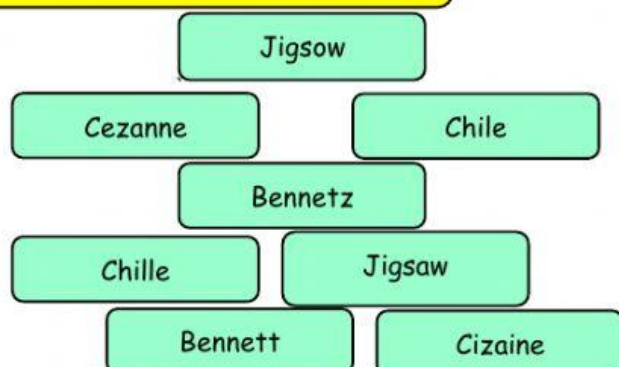

5. event success competition

Only a small number of people can enter this _____ and _____

B. Practice saying the alphabet. Then listen and choose the correct answer from the options given.

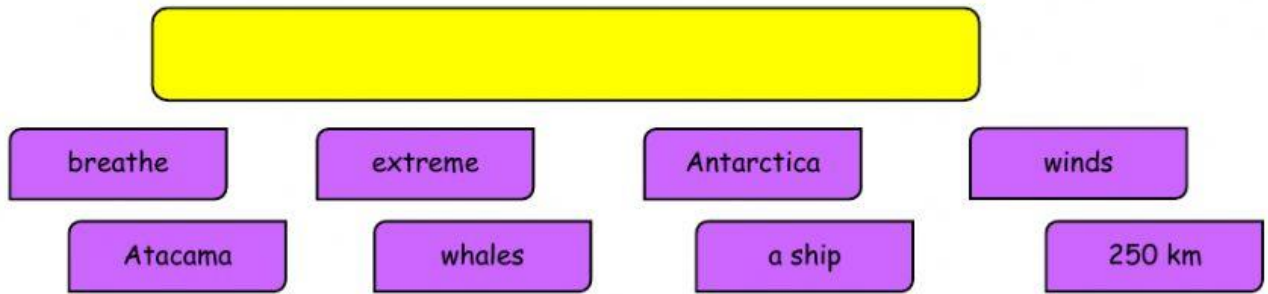

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____

C. Complete the Exam Task.

You will here some information about a race in extreme parts of the world. For each question, fill in the missing information in the numbered space.

The Four Deserts Race

The race starts in the (1) _____ Desert, in Chile.

Length of each part of the race: (2) _____ km.

Gobi Desert: problems include strong (3) _____ and snow in the mountains.

Sahara Desert: competitors find it difficult to (4) _____ because of sandstorms.

The final part of the race is in the (5) _____ desert.

Competitors can see penguins, seals and (6) _____

Competitors sleep on a (7) _____

Competitors run in very (8) _____ conditions.

By Teacher Nabilah