Woodrow Wilson

Thomas Woodrow Wilson was born in Staunton, Virginia in 1856. Woodrow Wilson, born as Thomas Woodrow Wilson, was the 28th American President. President Wilson is known for his progressive policies and is revered by some as the nation's "best" president.

He played a central role in creating the Treaty of Versailles that ended World War I. When Wilson returned from Versailles, however, he discovered that the country's mood had changed. Support for the League of Nations, which Wilson saw as an essential part of the peace treaty, had sharply declined.

Questions

1. Woodrow Wilson was the _____ president of the U.S.
2. President Wilson was known for his _____policies.
3. Wilson played a central role in creating the Treaty of _____ that ended WW_____.
4. Wilson saw the League of _____ as an essential part of the peace treaty.
5. T or F Support for the League of Nations was very strong when Wilson returned from Versailles. _____
6. Wilson was born in _____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS