Adjectives and adverbs

Adjectives

a symbol of the difficult, stormy nature of love

she looks calm and content

Adverbs

Look carefully and you'll notice that ...

These may look like fairly conventional, fairly realistic pieces,

Sadly, though, he died at the age of 37.

1 Adjectives are often used before / after nouns. Adjectives are also often used before / after the verbs be, look, become, seem, get, taste, etc. to describe the subject of the verb.

2 Most adverbs are formed by adding _____ to the adjective, but some have the same form as the adjective: fast, hard and later. Adverbs can be used to modify verbs, _____ , other adverbs and whole clauses or sentences.

LIVEWORKSHEETS