1. Drag and drop the name of the services to the pictures.

Home repairs

Computer repair and data recovery

Auto repair

Laundry and dry cleaning

Language tutoring

Security systems repair

Carpet cleaning

Car wash

2. Discuss the following questions.

a) Why would someone need these services?

b) Have you ever used any of them?

c) How do you choose a company or person to do any of them?

d) What services are you using these days?

3. Listen to the ad and check the services it offers.

Music lessons ☐ Laundry and dry cleaning ☐

Home cleaning ☐ Hair cuts ☐

Language tutoring ☐ Repairs ☐

Meal preparation ☐ Pet food ☐

4. Listen again or read the ad and fill in the blanks with the missing words (get or have)

a) You can ☐ your apartment cleaned and your things organized.

b) You can ☐ your walls painted and your liking sink fixed.

c) Do you want to ☐ your car washed?

d) You can ☐ it all done at affordable prices.

5. Match the tips to the situations.

A- I want to check my blood pressure, where can I go to do it?

B- ☐

A- I'm too busy to clean my house, is there a company available to do that?

B- ☐

A- I need to wash my car, but I don't have the equipment; what should I do?

B- ☐

A- Oh no! All my suits are dirty and I have a meeting next week. What can I do to have them cleaned?

B-

A- I took my car to the repair shop, but it's still not working.

B-

You can have your blood pressure checked at a pharmacy.

You can get your house cleaned by "LEAVE IT TO ME"

Where did you get it repaired?

Why don't you have it washed at a car wash?

You should have them dry cleaned by "LEAVE IT TO ME"