

GRAMMAR

DIRECTIONS

Choose the passive voice form of each sentence. Circle the letter of the correct answer.

24. The dog chased the cat.
A. The dog chasing the cat.
B. The cat chased the dog.
C. The cat was chased by the dog.
D. The cat were chased at the dog.

25. Cesar read the introduction.
A. The introduction were read for Cesar.
B. Cesar was read the introduction.
C. The introduction was read by Cesar.
D. The introduction of Cesar was read.

26. The postal worker delivered the mail.
A. The mail delivered by the postal worker.
B. The postal worker were delivered the mail.
C. The mail was delivering the postal worker.
D. The mail was delivered by the postal worker.

27. My mother scolded me.
A. Me, I was being scolded by my mother.
B. I was scolded by my mother.
C. My mother was scolded me.
D. I was scolded my mother.

28. People bought spices and gold at the market.
A. Spices and gold were bought at the market.
B. At the market, spices and gold were being bought.
C. By people at the market, spices and gold were being bought.
D. Spices and gold by people were being bought at the market.

29. Yoko's friends surprised her.
A. Her friends were surprised for Yoko.
B. Yoko surprised her friends.
C. Yoko was surprised by her friends.
D. Her friends by Yoko were surprised.

30. Explorers discovered exciting new things.
A. Exciting by explorers new things were discovered.
B. By explorers, exciting new things were discovered
C. New things were discovered by exciting explorers.
D. Exciting new things were discovered by explorers.