You've Changed 2

Cathy	has disappeared
Peter's hairstyle	has been sold
Peter's beard	has changed completely
Peter	has moved to a larger apartment
Peter's old car	has given a job to her
Anna	has had a baby
Anna's father	has started wearing contact lenses

Sports Roundup 2

1. Diego Garcia of the French Open.
2. The 26-year-old from Sao Paulo, managed Swiss player Heinz Gruller in four sets.
3. Baresi now leads over six minutes ...

4. Stormy weather played its part and the players didn't 2 o'clock in the afternoon.
5. Gert Kruger, driving for Ferrari, finished the day in pole position and looks in a great position to in the world championship standings.
6. Pittsburgh 10-2 by a strong Milwaukee side.
7. Boston the Yankees by 7-3.
8. The Chicago White Sox a close game 4-3 against Cleveland.
9. Tampa Bay 8-5 in Toronto...
10. ...and Houston St. Louis by 4-1.

Haybridge Hall

This fine country house is found about 12 miles NW of Cambridge in the east of England. Easy rail connections from London and Birmingham. Open Monday-Saturday, 9a.m.- 5.30p.m. Entrance fee £9 for adults, £4 for children. Under-5's free. Automated tour guide recordings available in languages.

History. was the original name after construction in 1482. Though the amount of land connected to the house has (3) , the structure itself has remained remarkably untouched. The last major addition was the which the British Army added as a radio room in May, 1941.

The original owners, the Hawken family, only owned the house for around a before the aristocratic Yardley family from the of England bought it and changed its name to Haybridge Hall.

The Yardley family lived there for around two centuries but then the property lay for about 60 years until a local author William Hoaten purchased the house. One survives of a church that collapsed in the house's grounds during this period of abandonment.

The Hoaten family left with the onset of World War Two having spent a considerable amount of money restoring the house to former glories. Local legend says that Churchill spent a few days in the house towards the end of the .

The Present Day. After spending a lot of money the property in the 1970s, now runs Haybridge Hall. Last year, over people visited the fine property and Haybridge Hall is now a highly profitable property.