Decide which use of the present perfect corresponds to each sentence. Write CONTINUES for actions in the past that continue in the present; write CONSEQUENCE for actions in the past that have a consequence in the present; write RECENT for actions that happened recently but we don't know or say when exactly they happened.

1. They have bought a very expensive car.
2. Your room is a mess. What have you done?
3. It hasn't rained at all this year.
4. Scientists have studied extremophiles for years to learn about the origins of life on Earth.
5. Kevin Hand has thought of life on other planets a lot.
6. I have studied a lot for this exam.
7. "You look very tired" "I have been at work all night"
8. Andy has repaired his sister's bike but she doesn't know it yet.

LIVEWORKSHEETS