Internal/ External Character Traits

Carefully examine each of the following statements from the story "Millicent". Determine whether the statement represents (shows) an outside character trait or an inside character. Select the appropriate response.

1. Joel Price couldn't read any further than page nine. _____

2. Miss was nice sometimes. _____

3. One Monday there she was, sitting in the third row in a bright red organdy dress and red ribbons and smelling of baby powder. _____

4.Millicent sat like a queen in the middle. _____

5.Millicent still sat with her arms tightly folded and her mouth pushed far like a pig snout. _____

6.The next morning Millicent appeared in a bright yellow organdy dress and yellow ribbons.

_____

7. She said, she didn't want either Picky-Head Congo Vena, or Roti-Coolie Harry near her. _____

8. The next morning Millicent to school wearing a blue overall, white blouse and a scowl on her face.

_____