Are these sentences true or false? Correct the false sentences.

a) All Jennifer Wilson's jewellery has been cleaned regularly except her earrings.
b) Sherlock knows that the victim had a suitcase because of the marks on the back of her leg.
c) A stranger calls John on his mobile phone.
d) The man in the suit wants John to spy on Sherlock.
e) The man in the suit has private information about John from his landlady.
f) Sherlock sends John a text message to come back to the crime scene.
g) John collects his gun before meeting Sherlock again.

Put these events in the right order.

a) The police are waiting for Sherlock at his flat.
b) Sherlock and John send a text message to the murderer.
c) Sherlock realizes that RACHEL is a password.
d) Sherlock and John wait in a restaurant for the killer to arrive.
e) Sherlock sees the killer and speaks to him.
f) The man in the taxi is an American tourist.
g) Sherlock receives a text message from the killer.
h) John learns that Sherlock has found the pink suitcase.