READING

I went to the movie theater expecting to see a very funny movie. Sadly, my expectations were not met and I was very disappointed.
There were a few hilarious scenes, some make you laugh out loud, but the most part of the film was very boring. After the movie, I wanted to refund my money and the one-hour-thirty-minute of my life that I lost watching it.
The story is about a group of teenagers that hit someone by car accidentally. The next year, someone starts killing this group and they suspect the crimes are related to the accident. It was copied from another movie called "I know what you did last summer".
The movie was written by six writers, but all of them were incompetent doing an original job. I didn't like this movie and I don't recommend it to anybody.
