Nothing compares to you (Sinéad O'Connor)

It's been seven / six hours and fifteen days

Since you took your car / love away

I go out every night and sleep / work all day

Since you took your love / car away

Since you've been gone I can do whatever I like / want

I can see whomever I choose

I can eat my dinner / breakfast in a fancy restaurant

But nothing I said nothing / everything can take away these blues

'Cause nothing compares, nothing compares to love / you

It's been so lonely / nice without you here

Like a bird without wings / a song

Nothing can stop these lonely tears from falling

Tell me, baby / honey, where did I go wrong

I could put my arms around every man / boy I see

But they'd only remind me of you / love

I went to the doctor and guess what he told me? Guess what he told me?

He said, "Girl, you better try to have fun no matter what you do," But he's a fool

'Cause nothing compares, everything / nothing compares to you…
