CANARIAN WORDS WITH ENGLISH ORIGINS

They are English words incorporated into the Canarian language, as a result of commercial links with England and the establishment of British traders in the islands, especially in the 18th, 19th and 20th centuries.

Match the words with the definitions.

queque	item of clothing
kinegua/chinegua	a means of transport typical of the Canary Islands autodate	instrument used to channel liquids into containers
Naifa	marble bowling balls pulóver	name of a knife
guagua	piece of meat
Fonil	type of potato
Bistec	dessert made from eggs, sugar and raisings
Boncho	type of potato
Boliche	a celebration

Chusos	sport shoes
flis	a bad smell /Exclamation of disgusting flash	Old, worn-out shoes
canchanchán	refers to an aerosol or spray un fisco / pisco de	refreshing drink wrapped in plastic fotingo	person who does things badly and in a bad way.
Tinglado	it is used to say a car is really old tenis	sign on the boats to indicate you can buy on board ¡Fo!	a small amount of something
Cambuyón	zinc plate cover