Match the sentences to the correct idiom.

The King lookalike couldn't help falling in love with Lynn Willoughby and yesterday they _____.	carrying a torch for
His skin was so pale, he looked like he was _____	time on her hands
It was a job in which she was able to _____	get a grip
Was this money a _____ or did you know you were going to get it?	gave me the cold shoulder
'Martin vowed he would _____ far and wide in the search for the best person'	tied the knot
He's been _____ your sister for years.	at death`s door
I just think he ought to _____ on himself - he's behaving like a child.	roll up you sleeves
I thought she really liked me, but the next day she _____.	bolt from the blue
Now that she was retired, Mary found that she had a lot of _____	cast the net
It's time to _____ and get some work done on the basics.	call the tune