Amazing FACTS about Films

Choose the correct option in the facts.

Actress Judi Dench was only in a very short eight-minute scene / cast in the film "Shakespeare In Love" However, she won an Oscar for her play / performance .

The plot / script for "Taxi Driver" came together in just a few days. As director / screenwriter Paul Schrader told, "I crashed at an ex-girlfriend's place, and I just wrote continuously. It took less than two weeks."

In the film "Kind Hearts & Coronets" (1949) actor Alex Guinness plays / sets eight different heroes / characters , including an old soldier, a young photographer and an old lady.

Those complex-looking green digits scrolling down the screen / film in "The Matrix" may look like mysterious code, but in fact they were symbols from a sushi cookbook, scanned by the movie's production character / designer.

"The Wolf of Wall Street" (2013) which stars / plays Leonardo DiCaprio, is set / put in New York but was actually made / filmed in Spain.

The bad command entered in the "master machine" where the animation / scene for "Toy Story 2" was stored deleted 90 per cent of the work the Pixar team had done on it.

Chris Pratt ("Guardians of the Galaxy") stole his Star-Lord role / costume from the set, so he could show up in costume to visit sick children in the hospital, who might want to meet Star-Lord.

The cat that Marlon Brando is holding in the opening scene / script in "The God Father" (1972) was a stray that Coppola found while at Paramount, and was not originally called for in the script / episode .

"Planet of The Apes" (1968), afforded a nominated / real Oscar for make-up to the decorations / special effects artist, John Chambers, who had previously worked in a military hospital creating prosthetics for injured patients.

The first "Shrek" (2002) was based / filmed on the 85-year-old William Steig picture book of the same name, playing / starring a green ogre. Voiced / Called by Canadian comedian / comics Mike Myers, Shrek has a Scottish accent.

LIVEWORKSHEETS