Hi, I'm John. Yesterday I went to the Cerro Cathedral with my father. It was in Villa Cathedral, Bariloche. This mountain was 2.405 metres high! It wasn't low at all. I didn't like to climb it because it was difficult, it was easier to go down. When we were on the mountain, there was a refugee there I ate five bananas and a lot of rice!. Then we went down and I was very tired. I went to a café that was there and my father drank a cup of tea and I drank a lot of Orange juice.
