

English vowel sounds

Vowel Phonemes
Lips loosely spread. Tongue lax with less tension than / i: / (short vowel)
Lips loosely spread and slightly wider apart than / ɪ / (short vowel)
Lips neutrally open and slightly wider apart than / e / (short vowel)
Open lip-rounding, wide open jaws, back of tongue low. (short vowel)
Lips neutrally open. Open jaws. Centralized quality. (short vowel)
Lips loose, but closely rounded. Tongue not as tense as in / u: / (short vowel)
Lips in neutral position. Centralized. Tongue slightly higher than in / ʌ / (short vowel)
Lips spread. Tongue tense (front raised) with sides touching upper molars. (long vowel)
Lips neutrally open and jaws far apart. Centre to back of tongue fully open. (long vowel)
Medium lip rounding. Tongue drawn back making no contact with upper molars. (long vowel)
Lips neutrally spread. Tongue slightly higher than / ə / (no firm contact with upper molars) (long vowel)
Lips closely rounded. Back of tongue high. Tense compared with / ʊ / (long vowel)

Pit - pet- pat -pot - luck -good - ago - meet -car - door -girl - too