THE COMET

Complete the summary by filling in the given spaces with suitable words / phrases :

The poet describes a moving comet which speeds through the heavens and never takes a break by _____. When a comet is in full flight, it gives a _____ scene which can never be compared to _____ for its speed and a mountain as it is _____. The _____ melts which causes a vapour from the force and leaves behind _____ as it travels on its way. If it comes very close to the atmosphere, it causes a shake which in turn produces a _____ that reaches the Earth's surface. According to the _____ the comets leave behind chemicals in the form of dust which resulted in the _____ of life on earth and mankind came into existence. But the poet is not sure whether this principle is true or not but he knows for sure that whatever the truth may be, the comet in full flight is the _____