Quizlet

NAME_____

10 Matching questions

1. _____ groups of traveling merchants

2. _____ hunt for evidence buried in the ground where settlements might once have been

3. _____ people who study heavenly bodies, map the stars, the planets, and the phases of the moon

4. _____ weapons, tools, and other things made by humans

5. _____ to tame animals and plants for human use

6. _____ skilled workers who made metal products, cloth, or pottery

7. _____ traces of plants or animals that have been preserved in rock

8. _____ focus on human society

9. _____ tools and methods used to help humans perform tasks

10. _____ allowed farmers to grow plenty of food and support a large population due to building walls, waterways, and ditches to bring water into their fields

A. technology

B. domesticate

C. anthropologist

D. artisan

E. caravan

F. artifact

G. irrigation

H. astronomers

I. archaeologist

J. fossil

10 Multiple choice questions

1. What was the capital of Assyria?

A. Sumer

B. Nineveh

C. Jericho

D. Asia

2. Hammurabi's Code of Laws

A. writing system in sumer

B. Assyria

C. Babylonian leader who created the first written code of 282 laws that dealt with almost every part of daily life

D. Babylon

3. province

A. political district

B. groups of traveling merchants

C. record keeper

D. complex society

4. cuneiform

A. political district

B. writing system in sumer

C. groups of traveling merchants

D. Persian Gulf

5. What empire arose nearly 1,000 years after Hammurabi, was located north of the Tigris River, and were a strong and fearful empire?

A. Babylon

B. Babylonian leader who created the first written code of 282 laws that dealt with almost every part of daily life

C. Persian Gulf

D. Assyria

6. scribe

A. complex society

B. groups of traveling merchants

C. political district

D. record keeper

7. Mesopotamia is known as the "land between two rivers". Which two rivers was Mesopotamia between?

A. focus on human society

B. political district

C. Jericho

D. Tigris & Euphrates

8. What was the earliest known village from the early ages? It was located between what is now Israel and Jordan.

A.
Jericho

B.
Nineveh

C.
Sumer

D.
Asia

9. civilization

A.
complex society

B.
allowed farmers to grow plenty of food and support a large population due to building walls, waterways, and ditches to bring water into their fields

C.
political district

D.
record keeper

10. Hammurabi was a king who helped build an empire known as...

A.
Babylon

B.
Persian Gulf

C.
Babylonian leader who created the first written code of 282 laws that dealt with almost every part of daily life

D.
Assyria