Isaac's New Puppy

Isaac is so excited that he is having trouble listening to what his teacher is saying. Today is his birthday. His mother said she would take him to get a puppy after school.

After school, Isaac hurries to find his mother. At the animal shelter, Isaac sees dogs and cats of all sizes, shapes, and colors. Then, he spots a white, furry puppy with big feet and floppy ears. He holds the puppy in his arms. He knows this is the puppy he wants. This is the best birthday present ever!
