GUESS THE TENSE!

We use Present tense to talk about things that happen right now or when something happens regularly.
E.g., I use my special pencil for English class.

We use Past tense to talk about things that already happened.
E.g., I used my special pencil yesterday.

Read the sentences. Write "present" if it is in present tense or "past" if it is in past tense. One has been done for you.

- The bad dog was greedy, so he dropped the bone in the water. past
- The dog stayed in the farm's kitchen.
- Patch barked at the children.
- Patch is a very bad dog.
- The Fox's nose picks up a very interesting scent.
- The Fox loves cheese more than anything in the whole world.
- The Crow opened his beak and started to sing.

Challenge! Choose a verb from the box and write a sentence in present and past tense.

PLAY	ACCEPT	CRY	ORGANIZE

Example:

Try
Present: I try to study every day.
Past: I tried to study yesterday.