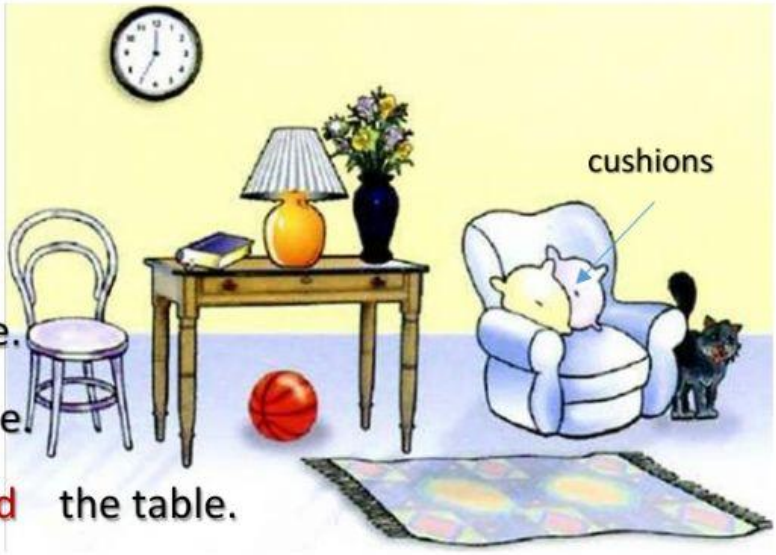
Prepositions of place

Look and choose:



The clock is in on the wall.

The ball is under in the table.

The chair is on next to the table.

The book is under on the table.

The carpet is in front of behind the table.

The cat is on next to the armchair.

The table is between under the chair and the armchair.

The lamp is on between the book and the vase.

The flowers are under in the vase.

The cushions are on behind the armchair.