Competition Among Animals of The Same Species

Match the descriptions with the right animal.

They fight off their competitor by locking their claws together and free falling through the air in a helicopter descent.	bison
These males battle head-to-head for a chance to mate with females.	howler monkeys
These bothers practice fighting with their beaks.	peacock
This male sings songs to attract female mates.	sage grouse
This male bird makes noises and dances to attract possible mates.	sea eagle
These males make a very loud noise to keep other males away.	gorillas
These animals burp to express happiness.	albatross
These birds show off their fantastic feathers to attract their mates.	mouse