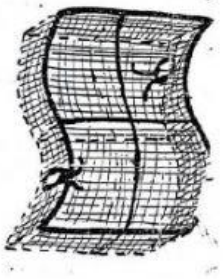
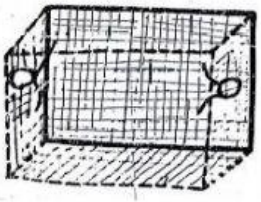
FISHING METHODS AND VESSELS

A. Match the fish pot to its name.

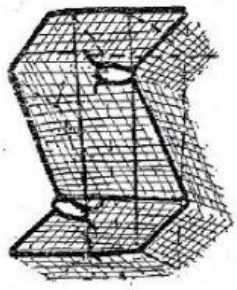
A-pot



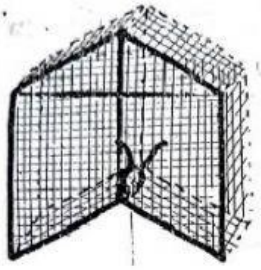
S-pot



Rectangle pot



Z-pot



B. Drag and drop the correct word in each space to complete the sentences.

longline gill net handline

1. I am attached to a boat and pulled along in the water. Fish become attracted to my bait and they get trapped in me by their gills. I am a _____.

2. I am a long line with shorter lines attached to me. At the end of my shorters hooks and bait can be found. I am a _____.

3. Fishermen sometimes take me out to jetties or cliffs, attach a hook to my end and toss me into to the water to catch fish. I am a _____.

C. Select the correct word or phrase to complete the following.

1. _____ are more than 12m long. They also have large _____ diesel engines. These boats also have cold containers to store fish and are used mainly to catch large fish.

2. _____ are open boats of about _____ in length. The boats are propelled by either oars or outboard engines. They usually stay close to the shoreline.

3. Launches are usually about _____ in length. They are propelled by _____ diesel engines are used mainly for catching flying-fish or pot fish.

4. _____ have installed ice holes or containers. They use inboard diesel engines and can stay out to sea for about _____ days.