Watch video –

1. Check your understanding: true or false

Circle True or False for these sentences.

1. Sherlock Holmes was a real person.
2. The books were written in the late 1800s.
3. The author of the books lived at 221B Baker Street.
4. You can visit a pub with a room set up like Sherlock Holmes's study.
5. Roger Johnson thinks the character of Sherlock Holmes is a perfect human.
6. The original stories are very well written.
7. Conan Doyle took his inspiration from real-life crimes.
8. Scientific or forensic policing is now even more important than in Sherlock Holmes's time.

2. Check your vocabulary: gap fill – prepositions

Write the words to fill the gaps.

1. The streets of London are full _____ history.
2. Since the 1800s, Holmes has appeared _____ many films.
3. You can find evidence of Sherlock Homes all _____ London.
4. Ah look! A pub named after Sherlock Holmes. Let's pop _____.
5. You can just imagine Sherlock Holmes and Dr Watson discussing how _____ solve crimes here.
6. 'Whoever's behind this thing must be _____ of his mind.'
7. He's a flawed hero. He doesn't have superpowers _____ the way that, say, Superman does.
8. Holmes was famous _____ his use of forensic or scientific approaches to solve crimes.

Over Of in out in for in to