Listening Comprehension Exercise

הקשיבו לשידור וענו על השאלות הבאות. עליכם לסמן את התשובה הנכונה.

BEDTIME STORIES – NOT JUST FOR CHILDREN

1. Why did John invite Susan Berger to his program?

i) To read a bedtime story on the radio.

ii) To help children fall asleep more easily.

iii) To talk about the stories she writes.

2. According to Susan, what problem do many adults have?

i) They don't want to go to sleep at night.

ii) They can't find stories that interest them.

iii) They can't fall asleep when they go to bed.

3. What does Susan explain about her stories?

i) Why they are not exciting.

ii) Why story tellers like to read them.

iii) Why there are no heroes.

4. What does Susan say about the sounds in the stories?

i) She uses only the sounds she likes.

ii) She gets them from story tellers.

iii) She uses nice sounds.

5. What happens at the end of Susan's stories?

i) The hero arrives at a beautiful place.

ii) The hero goes on a new trip.

iii) The hero explains why he loves the place.

6. Why doesn't Susan want the listeners to hear the end of the story?

i) She wants them to think of a new ending.

ii) She wants them to fall asleep before the story ends.

iii) She knows the end of the story is not interesting.