Poppy Day

The Hussy's

Tattoos on his _____
Faded _____ his liver spots and gold watch strap
His son _____ visits him
Since they fell out _____ ago and it's as simple as that

Keeps his good blazer for _____ day
Umbrella for a _____ and his _____ so _____
Lost in a world of his thoughts as he turns away
Wishes that his _____ would maybe just come for a day
Maybe his son could _____ the hatchet what you say?

His wife had a _____ attack
When his horse won the National three or _____ years ago
Pretends he doesn`t miss her
But he always _____ his pathway clear of _____ snow

Keeps his good blazer for _____ day
Umbrella for a _____ and his _____ so _____
Wishes that his _____ would maybe just come for a day
Maybe his son could _____ the hatchet, what you say?
Maybe his son could _____ the hatchet, what you say?

[Guitar solo]

Keeps his good blazer for _____ day (_____ day)
Umbrella for a _____ and his _____ so _____ (so _____)Lost in a world of his thoughts as he turns away
Wishes that his _____ would maybe just come for a day
Maybe his son could _____ the hatchet, what you say?
Maybe his son could _____ the hatchet, what you say?
What you say?

1.- Write these words in the correct gaps above.

POPPY – BURY – GREY – GRANDKIDS – HEART – FOREARMS – NEVER – YEARS – BEHIND – HAIRS – WINTER – GUN – FOUR - KEEPS

2.-Write a comparative that you find in the song.

3.- Find two sentences in the present simple tense, 3rd person singular.

4.- Find two present simple tenses without subject. Is it correct?

5.- What is missing in the question "What you say?"

6.- Explain the expression "bury the hatchet". Is it similar in your language?

7.- Find two sentences in the past simple and transform them into the negative form.

8.- Find two adverbs of frequency. Where are they placed in the sentence?

9.- How do you call the paragraph that is repeated several times in a song?

10.- Write two words that rhyme.

11.- I wish (that) you would/could be with me on Poppy Day.

I wish (that) you were with me on Poppy Day.

...visited me...

Ojalá pudieras estar...

Ojalá estuvieras...

Ojalá me visitaras...