Simple Present

Affirmative

I / You / We / They	+ base form verb	+ complement.
He / She / It	+ base form verb + -s/-es/-ies	+ complement.

Example: We live in Monterrey. / She lives in Monterrey.

Negative

I / You / We / They	+ don't	+ base form verb	+ complement.
He / She / It	+ doesn't	+ base form verb	+ complement.

Example: We don't live in Monterrey. / She doesn't live in Monterrey.

Interrogative

Do	+ I / you / we / they	+ base form verb	+ complement?
Does	+ he / she / it	+ base form verb	+ complement?

Example: Do you live in Monterrey? / Does she live in Monterrey?

I. Write each verb in the chart according to the ending they adopt in singular third person.

miss / buy / spend / carry / stop / do / fly / relax / copy

-s	-es	-ies

II. Choose the correct option to complete the sentences in simple present.

1. My neighbors have / has a party every weekend.
2. My favorite soccer team wear / wears a yellow uniform.
3. I listen / listens to music when I study / studies .
4. My dog run / runs a lot when I take / takes it to the park.

5. Julian and Paul is / are my friends.

6. Helen don't / doesn't / know / knows your number.

7. We don't / doesn't / like / likes that kind of music.

8. Those flowers don't / aren't red.

9. My phone don't / doesn't / have / has that function.

10. You don't / doesn't / need / needs my help.

11. Do / Does Elisa buy / buys online?

12. Do / Does your children practice / practices karate?

13. Does / Is this your notebook?

14. Do / Does your father work / works in a hospital?

15. Do / Does you take / takes care of the environment?

III. Write the sentences in affirmative, negative or interrogative.

Affirmative	Negative	Interrogative
The baby cries a lot.
		Does Erik have a dog?
	My friends don't know.
	These aren't your keys.
		Do they know the answer?