This is Pamela's mum's reply:

Dear Pamela,

I am so glad you have met Mr. Clayton. I was really happy when we _____ (get) your letter; we believed you were not having a good time. Before we got your letter today and found out you were happy, we _____ (be) very worried about you staying at that school. Some days ago, your dad said that he _____ (think) it _____ (be) a good idea for you to come back home with us. I told him _____ (not make) any decisions until we got your next letter. I am glad we did. It's nice to find such a good teacher, I'm so happy for you!

Before I forget: your father _____ (travel) to Rome tomorrow, because he _____ (+ attend) a meeting there for work. Unfortunately, I _____ (+ not go) with him. Your grandma _____ (not be) very well lately, so I'm going to stay with her, because if I _____ (go) to Rome with your dad, she would have nobody to look after her.

Well, honey, take care and keep on studying.

Love,

Mum
