Name: _____

Grammar

Imperative and Exclamatory Sentences

An imperative sentence gives a command. It tells you to do or not to do something. It ends with a period (.). Examples:

1. Wash your hands before you eat.
2. Don't take off your mask in a public place.

An exclamatory sentence expresses strong feelings. It ends with an exclamation mark (!). Examples:

1. What an inconvenience this Corona Virus is!
2. How careless it is to go to school if you are sick!

Let's Practice: Write imperative or exclamatory to describe each sentence.

1. _____ What big eyes you have, Grandma!
2. _____ Bring me some vegetable soup.
3. _____ Name as many dogs as you can.
4. _____ This book is really fantastic!
5. _____ Look at this picture of the beautiful sunset.
6. _____ What beautiful animals they are!

Add the correct punctuation mark to complete each sentence.

7. I won the grand prize ___
8. Let's go to the movies ___

Create sentences. Use correct capitalization and punctuation.

9. Write an imperative sentence.

_____

10. Write an exclamatory sentence.

_____